Presenting the Kosasa Neighborhood at Punahou School

Presenters: R. Stan Duncan, ASLA; Kendall Ellingwood, AIA, LEED AP; Kanako Furchi, AIA

Moderator: Lauren Esposito

Hear how this unique organizational, large-scale, and campus-wide initiative came together from the landscape architecture and architecture firms who designed it.

An Award of Merit and Hawaii Energy Award for Energy-Efficient Design winner at this year's AIA Honolulu Design Awards, the Kosasa Neighborhood has been a multi-year project with outstanding institutional features apparent throughout concept and execution.
